23. When after three years of operation or any date thereafter it can be proved that the application of the provisions set out in clause 21 results in a profit to the licensee of not less than the fixed charges (which shall include all interest charges and sinking fund costs, losses on the capital invested and losses on overheads, then discounts on the rates specified in clause 17 and 18 up to a maximum of 10 per cent may be allowed. If the Secretary of State always provided that the charged overheads has been managed in a reasonably efficient manner and no charge of maintenance, fire, depreciation of plant, other income and revenue, or unexpected expenditure can be proved. Such discounts shall not be available if discontinued activity when the profit is discontinued, as determined in clause 17 except the fixed charges on the capital invested and losses.

24. When the profit made by the licensee and available for distribution equals the amount required for fixed charges on the capital including losses incurred in the enterprise, then the amount shall be divided for the benefit of the licensee and the licensee. Fifty per cent of the gross profit after paying the fixed charges shall be distributed in a 'licensee's fund' for the purpose of retaining the rates for light and power allowing rebates for power to be made other payments to any directly benefit the licensee. The remaining fifty per cent of the gross may be devoted by the licensee to such other purposes as may benefit the licensee.

25. The term, in this case, is defined as the difference between the gross income and the operating and maintenance expenses of the system plus depreciation and necessary loss.

(a) Operating and maintenance expenses include —
(i) Cost of power (when purchased) inclusive of cost of fuel, oil, water, and steam consumed, salaries and wages, travelling expenses and house pay of staff, amortization for premises, in particular, and amortization for electric and mechanical tools of repair, calculations and run rate of small parts not chargeable to depreciation account.

(ii) All rents, rates and taxes (including license fees when paid) and payments for insurance of property.

(iii) Depreciation and general establishment charges and other expenses on various means, materials in the undertaking.

(iv) A fund up to ten per cent of the capital invested in the undertaking may be set aside annually if desired in a special reserve for amortization. When the fund amounts five per cent of the invested capital the surplus may be applied at the discretion of the licensee at the undertaking.

(v) The charges for depreciation shall be in accordance with the Indian Income Tax Act, 1918, or any statutory modification thereof.

26. At least 10 per cent of the depreciation or sinking fund cost be credited to Government or Trustee account and can drawn upon without the permission of the Government, until the fund has accumulated to the original amount provided for.

27. When the return on the capital invested has averaged less than the amount required in each year fixed charges annually over a period of five years, license is subject to the action of the local authority and be terminated if desired, for as long as may be required to make up the accumulated deficit in the fixed charges.

28. The licensee will be required to attend their law license certification in any point within the licensed area when a projected actual consumption of energy equal to or greater than an average of 2,500 K.W.H. per mile can be obtained from the prospective licensee.

29. Any dispute or difference arising between the licensee and the Secretary of State or their respective Engineers or in the supply of electricity energy licensee or the licensee thereof or as to the interpretation of the agreement or the rights of the Secretary of State or the licensee respectively to determine the same or any other question, matter or thing arising hereunder shall be referred to a single arbitrator to be appointed on the application of either party by the Government the Chief Justice for the time being of Madras willing to act or if it shall be unwilling to act then some other person who shall be mutually agreed upon by both parties. The Arbitrator's decision shall be final and the provisions of the Indian Arbitration Act of 1916 or of any other statutory modifications thereof for the time being in force shall apply to any such decision.

30. The rate is the contract or fixed rate, less a 10 per cent but above the grid exchange rate of the market at the date of the agreement decrease by more than 10 per cent during the period then the rate and amounts mentioned in this agreement are subject to modification. The proportionate increase, if any, would not exceed the proportionate decrease in the grid exchange rate of the type at the date of the agreement.

shall briefly set out the grounds of the appeal. Except with the approval of the Court or Master, no book abstract of documents or evidence shall be allowed to be filed or admitted.

It shall not be necessary to file a copy of the order or decision appealed against and the time for bringing any such copy shall not be excluded as occupying the said period of eight days.

Under the Court shall otherwise order, the filing of an appeal shall not operate as a stay of the order or decision appealed against.

38. All chambers applications shall be heard before the Master in the first instance. If the application is one which by these rules or by the Judge's decision is required to be dealt with by a Judge in person, the Master shall advise the Master in the Judge as soon as the matter is ripe for hearing.

III. Order XVI, rule 5 (a)—Substituted the figure 7 for 6.

III. Order XVII, rule 15.—For the words "Order XIII, rule 5 (a)", substitute "Order XIII, rule 7 (a)".
